For the purposes of this Act, Article 30 shall apply to cabin crew in the same manner as it applies to flight crew, and the following provisions shall apply to both flight crew and cabin crew:

1. The initial period of validity of a validation issued under this Act shall not exceed twelve (12) months from the date of issuance, or such other period as may be determined by the Director General, and may be extended, subject to approval and any prescribed conditions.
2. A validation issued under this Act shall be physically attached to the licence to which it pertains and shall remain so attached for the duration of its validity.
3. The Director General may, at his discretion, require any applicant for a validation to undergo such examinations, tests, or checks as are deemed necessary in the specific case.
4. The provisions of Article 90 of this Act shall apply to any validation issued under this Article in the same manner as they apply to a pilot licence.
