

Reporting points on Arrival – Valletta VTS

1. Vessels approaching Grand Harbour from any direction:

- Two (2) hours before arrival at pilot station
- Five (5) nautical miles off from pilot station
- At pilot station
- When pilot embarks
- At the breakwater
- At berth ATA (Actual Time of Arrival)
- When Pilot disembarks

Vessels shall remain in VHF radio communication, being ready to give a position report or inform the VTS of the vessel's intentions. Also, to take such direction or advice as the VTS deem necessary.

2. Vessels bound for Anchorage Areas / Waiting Areas or Conveyance Position:

- 2 hours before arrival to the designated area
- 5 nautical miles off from the designated area
- Prior to anchoring at the designated area or on arrival at the conveyance position (ATA)

Vessels shall remain in VHF radio communication, being ready to give a position report or inform the VTS of the vessel's intentions. Also, to take such direction or advice as the VTS deem necessary.