Application Form for a Provisional Ship Station Licence
(applicable only to SOLAS ships)

1. With regard to radiocommunications equipment, in terms of the Electronic Communications (Regulation) Act (Cap.399), an individual licence is required for the installation or use of equipment, unless the equipment is licence exempt or is regulated by a general authorisation. Non-compliance with this requirement is a breach of the said Act.
2. The licence fees chargeable for ship station licences are set out in the Fees Leviable by Government Departments Regulations (S.L.35.01).
3. Maritime radiocommunications equipment, including that used for maritime radionavigation services shall be maintained so as to remain compliant with any laws, including any regulations made thereunder, as may from time to time be applicable.
4. A ship station licence is an international document, which shall be kept current at all times and any discrepancies in the document will render the licence invalid. The original ship station licence should be kept on board the ship at all times and be available for production to appropriate authorities if required.
5. Duly completed applications must be submitted to Transport Malta (TM) at the e-mail address indicated in this form.
